Title: Survival Shop Cuisine

Author: Lenora of Yew

Introduction

The Survival Shop is perhaps the oldest surviving building in PaxLair City. In the early days of the city, it was a crucial axis for equipment, gossip, and ale... But most importantly, food! This cookbook is an attempt to recreate a few of the more famous recipes from the early days of the PaxLair Survival Shop. Thank you to the citizens whose fond memories are an invaluable contribution to this book. This book is dedicated to PaxLair and its citizens, especially those who have been customers of the Survival Shop since its creation.
